

October 8, 2011
WILLIAM CLARKE QUANTRILL SOCIETY
REUNION

- 9 AM      THE BIG BLUE- BLUE RIDGE TOUR    $12
An important part of Quantrill Guerrilla country was the Big Blue-Blue Ridge area of Jackson County and the area was the site of numerous engagements. We will visit Wallace Grove (where the old Quantrill Reunions were held from 1912-1929) as well as Pitcher Cemetery, The Devil's Backbone, Big Blue Bridge (where at least 3 skirmishes occurred), MESCO Pictures site and other locations of particular interest. We leave from the south side of the Independence Square.
- 1 PM      Return to Independence Square-Lunch on Your Own
- 1 PM      GEORGE BINGHAM HISTORICAL Programs by the Jackson County Historical Society. The 1866 election paintings are portrayed. This is outside and free.
- 2 PM      WILLIAM CLARKE QUANTRILL SOCIETY
Headquarters open at the Courthouse Exchange on the South side of the Independence square.
Membership matters, books and exhibits
- 4 PM      WILLIAM CLARKE QUANTRILL SOCIETY
ANNUAL MEETING at Headquarters.
- 6 PM      BANQUET AND AWARDS DINNER    $13
Paul Peterson will speak on "Confessions of a Guerrilla Author"